The Accommodation of the Dream.

The last time I have been to London I have stayed in an apart-hotel near the Thames, which name was "Five o'clock". It is the spacious, bright, three-floors building with its patio and a small swimming pool. The "Five o'clock" is not the ordinary hotel contained a plenty of rooms and a canteen on the first floor. It has rooms with their own kitchens! I swear it is extremely convenient. You should not stay stand in a queue and communicate with unknown people, while you are eating.

Speaking of the features of this place, I would notice a co-working club there. It is involved some comfortable arm chairs and desks. Moreover, there are computers with useful applications, the bottled water is always available too. So, if you are interested in productive working, you definitely should go there.

Furthermore, there is a cinema where you can watch whatever you want. For instance, romcoms, thrillers, comedies, dramas, soap operas. It's up to you! Of course, there are drinks and snacks.

When you go there you must know that they don't allow come with pets. So, if you have it, you should seek a hotel for an animal. Also they require 2 documents. In that way, you should take a driving licence or a medical card.

In general, it's a great hotel with kind workers and an average price. I hope you enjoy your time in the "Five o'clock"!
