Sleep in Vladivostok

Last year I traveled to Vladivostok, I was a school trip to visit university. We stayed at the big hotel on a hill. There was a great view on the sea. ~~Two people~~ ^{Two people} stayed in one room. Hotel room was clean but a little bit small for two people. Still, room had a TV and a refrigerator. Bathroom was quite good and comfortable in use. To open ~~your~~ ^{your} room, ~~you~~ ^{you} use electricity and lift we were given a key card. If you lost it or it stopped working you had to go to reception. Hotel also had a restaurant. There was good food. The bad thing in this hotel was staircase. You were forced to use lift because stairs were closed. The problem in number of lifts, there were only three and the building of the hotel was really big, so a lot of people stayed there. Which means lift were often occupied. There also were interesting things like ping pong table at the 5 floor and massage chair. To other travellers I would recommend this hotel if you don't have a tight schedule in the morning. ^{Room} You can sleep comfortable in the night or you don't have to go in there.
