My hotel experience

Hello, I'm going to give a talk about the only hotel I've been to in my entire life. The last hotel I stayed at was in China and I don't remember its name. Personally, I really enjoyed being at that hotel because I was alone, my friend and his dad were there as well. The hotel had soft and warm beds, which I could sleep in for hours. The room I was in also had a really comfy feeling and a nice shower. In the hotel there was a really nice cafe that we went to every morning, it had a bunch of tasty food and a vending machine that I got a coffee from every morning. Me and my friend enjoyed exploring the hotel at evening like going to the main hall and going in areas we haven't been to. We also did some silly actions in the hallways on our floor which was pretty fun to do. Before you ever go to China I'd recommend you ~~to~~ prepare for a lot of smells outside and inside. What's interesting is that sometimes people in China live in their own shops. Also, ~~there was no~~ you should be careful in the hotel room, if you accidentally spill something on your bed, you will pay for it.
