Writing You ask me why I learning English language.

I'm ^{thirteen} 13 years old and I think it is the best age to start learning something new that can help you in the future. In my case this important and helpful thing is most popular language - English. English is pretty easy, so everybody can learn it even at the age of 50. And personally my reason for learning English is that I want to become a linguist in the future, when I grow up.

My favourite thing in learning English is their rich world of interesting and beautiful words. And of course it is also one of most important thing in learning of new languages. I also like English sentence structure, it is very easy for know too.

And what advice can I give to other peoples which decide learn new language. Firstly, you must trust your self and don't worry about bad results, because you started it not long time ago. Secondly, you must take extra lessons or find teacher or English friend to improve you speaking and writing.

I wish my article was helpful for you and many other people get motivation! 190 слов
