Too many toys?

Let's think, what advantages and disadvantages are there many toys? One of most pleasant advantages is the face of your kid. This face is full of happy when a child get his toy. He smiles and it's a wonderful moment. But when it becomes addicting, you should stop doing it. Kid saw a toy and he is starting to ask you buy it. though he had enough toys. In this situation, you should discuss buying of toys with your child. Because ~~the~~ the advantage can become a huge disadvantage. It is a free spending of your money. Noone wants it. Also, having a large number of toys is a problem for mothers. ~~For kids~~ Mothers have to pick up this toys from the floor and it spends a lot of time. /130

That's why, to my opinion, you should explain your child that ~~a huge toys~~ having a large number of toys is not need for him. This is saves your money and learrens kid be more economic. /163

As for me, my parent told me about it and this fact is made me sad. But when I grew and became more older, I understand that it was a right decision. /195
