In this article I'm going to touch upon a theme ~~of charging~~ "to charge or not to charge" for admission to museums. This topic is very important in modern world because there are so many museums and exhibitions all over the planet. I'll try my best to express my opinion and to give explanation for it.

It is common knowledge that ~~you need to pay for~~ if you want to enter the museum you need to pay for it. I cannot argue with this rule because museum needs money for its own aims. If the museum has no money so there won't be some other exhibitions. Fether more, the stuff of the museum won't get its salary so they won't continue their work there. So, to pay for the enter to the museum is a must.

But there are some cases when the museum must pass the rule and to give an ability to people to enter for free. For example if a person lives in poverty and has no money for the ticket ~~the museum~~ it would be good for the museum to allow him to enter. what's more, the are some laws and programmes from the government according to such cases.

~~And now I'm going to give some advices for this complicated question. As I've said above, there are some laws and programmes from the government for free enterings to museums. To my mind, such programmes must be compulsory because people all over the world want to admire exhibitions. Moreover, an art must be available for all the people so it must be free. Government must pay for tickets and people haven't to do.~~

And now I'm going to give some advices for this complicated question. As I've said above, there are some laws and programmes from the government for free enterings to museums. To my mind, such programmes must be compulsory because people all over the world want to admire exhibitions. Moreover, an art must be available for all the people so it must be free. Government must pay for tickets and people haven't to do.

In conclusion I want to say that we needn't to spend our money for tickets. Entry must be free and all the people who want must have an ability ~~for~~ to enter. An art and museums in general are beautiful things in the world so they must be available for all of us. 318 слов
